5. (Secret - JGO) Met with Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, and reviewed with him the draft correspondence with the House Government Operations Committee concerning Agency training of municipal police. See Memorandum for the Record.

Slatinshek told me that the lineup of the Intelligence Subcommittee for the coming Congress will be Representative Nedzi, Chairman; with Democrats Hebert, Price and Fisher; and Republicans Bray, Arends and Bob Wilson. Slatinshek asked if I would provide Chairman Nedzi, for the Subcommittee, with a breakout of the Agency budget since our budget is no longer covered in the authorizing legislation process by the Committee. He will also need a listing of the changes from last year's budget. Charles Briggs, ORM, has been advised.

Slatinshek told me that the Intelligence Subcommittee is undertaking a study of the recruiting and training practices within the intelligence community and asked that we supply for the Chairman a report on our recruiting practices and the training of our people. He would like to know where we do our training and requested a listing of our training sites and installations. The Chairman would like to know the costs involved in our recruiting and training activities. He would also like to know how long our people stay on board and what is our retention rate. If possible, the Chairman would like this report on recruiting and training by 1 March. Hugh Cunningham, D/OTR, and Harry Fisher, D/Pers, have been advised.

As a final item Slatinshek told me that he has heard that the last B-52 raid on Hanoi wiped out the major SAM distribution or assembly area severely crippling NVN's ability to supply and replace SAM equipment. I told him the damage assessment is the province of the military but that I would see if we had anything on it.

I briefed Slatinshek on the following current items: Soviet SS-11 ICBM firings, SA-X-8 training, naval construction at the Nikolayev yard, French nuclear testing, Egyptian TU-16 training, and MIG-21 assembly.

6. (Unclassified - JGO) Attempted to schedule a meeting with Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee of House Armed Services Committee, during the day but was not successful in contacting him.
